

CHARACTERISTICS OF ASSESSMENT

- Performance targeted assessment should elicit higher order thinking
- Assessment should accurately measure student mastery of course objectives
- Assessment should be varied, including formative and summative measures
- Assessment should be differentiated when feasible
- Assessment should be relevant and maintain appropriate rigor
- Teacher feedback during and after assessment is critical
- Projects can be group based, but assessment of the final product should be individualized

